June 4. 1865

Dear Mr. Furness

for the kind note & enclosure
& for the proposed
"Nation." It is a most happy auspicy
& just such a pa per as the Standard

ought to have become as the uprising — if it could. + I have not seen or heard of Dr. Sodkin, so suppose he was prevented from being here on anniversary week. I was told he left me a letter of introduction from Cary, long

+ Miss. & June answered the Slavery question & should alter the nation.

Sunday, but I was in the country then,
out of humanity's
reach. The Freemens meeting (evening of the 1st June) was most excellent. Speeches, audience, spirit, surprises — all right. The N. E. Con I did not attend, but hear it was Anne Dickinson & Wendell
P. swearing by each other as the greatest

Mass & woman of the 19th Century. This may be mere gossip — but what is certain is, that the tendency of such meetings, from Sarson is not there to hold them in check is to a War between the Whites & the blacks: but the times will hold them in check & trust & their own Display of themselves better than any thing else could do.

I saw L. Nott, & "tasted" to Sarson & against Bird Ops. For there was no time
